Main idea.

This book is about a girl who has everything in life. But when she finds out something is wrong with her she ignores it.

Genre- Realistic Fiction.

Theme.

The life lesson in this book is that you should never ignore a medical problem.

Setting.

Time: modern times.

Place: Covington School, U.S.A.

Mood: It's a good funny book. When she gets sick it gets a little bit depressing but still good because, it tells about real life.
